Should the transaction involve a gift of money or equity, or transfer of property at less than market value, Skipton will require your conveyancer to obtain an indemnity policy, at your own expense. This is to cover loss sustained as a result of any claim being made under the provisions of Section 339 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (as amended by the Insolvency Act 1994) or Section 421A of the Insolvency Act 1986 (as introduced by Section 12 of the Insolvency Act 2000) to invalidate.

If the above applies to your application, or your application changes so that a gift is required, our Solicitors will need to review a copy of the indemnity policy and approve it prior to the drawdown of your facility.
